

The DND and Air Cadet League Relationship

Federal Government of Canada

Department of National Defence (DND)

Canadian Armed Forces (CAF)

Cadets and Junior Canadian Rangers (CJCR)

- Cadet Instructors Cadre (CIC) Officers
- Civilian Instructors (CIs)
- Civilian Volunteers (CVs)

Officers, CIs, CVs deliver the Training Program to Cadets

✓ Training	✓ Flag Party	✓ Gliding
✓ Effective Speaking	✓ Orienteering	✓ Range
✓ Ground School	✓ Drill Team	✓ Band
✓ Summer Camps	✓ Marksmanship	✓ Biathlon

808 Thunderbird Wing - Royal Canadian Air Force Association (RCAFA)

✓ Civil/Military Air Awards	✓ RCAF Advocacy
✓ Support 205 Air Cadets	✓ Community Charity
✓ Fundraising for 205	✓ Air Force Traditions

Memorandum of Understanding (MoU)

Cadet Leagues of Canada

Navy League of Canada
Vancouver Island Division

Air Cadet League of Canada
BC Provincial Committee (BCPC)

Army Cadet League of Canada - BC Branch

- SSC Executive (Volunteer Parents)
- SSC Board Members (Volunteer Parents)
- Casual Volunteers (Parents)

The SSC / League raises funds and other supports the program

✓ Training Facilities	✓ Fundraisers	✓ Grants
✓ Transportation	✓ Recruiting	✓ Taxes
✓ Public Relations	✓ Sponsorships	✓ Events
✓ Internet/Phone	✓ Supplies	✓ and more

Raymond Collishaw (Born 22 November 1893 in Nanaimo, BC) was a distinguished Canadian fighter pilot, squadron leader, and commanding officer who served in the Royal Naval Air Service (RNAS) and later the Royal Air Force. He was the highest scoring RNAS flying ace and the second highest scoring Canadian pilot of the First World War.